

Draft Legislation (Wales) Bill

Q1. Q1: Do you agree that it is necessary to impose a statutory obligation on future governments in Wales in order to improve accessibility of Welsh law?

Don't know but ISO standards are needed

Q2. Q2: If so, do you agree with the approach taken in Part 1 of the Draft Bill to impose such an obligation?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q3. Q3: Do you agree with the approach to application of Part 2 of the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q4. Q4: Do you agree with the approach in section 3(3) of the Draft Bill, which disapplies a particular rule if the context otherwise requires?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q5. Q5: Do you consider the definition of "Wales" should be by reference to the local authority areas of Wales, or by some other means?

Don't know but ISO standards are needed

Q6. Q6: Do you have any comments on what has, or has not been, included in Schedule 1 to the Draft Bill?

ISO standards

Q7. Q7: Do you agree with the approach in section 7 of the Draft Bill?

Don't know but ISO standards are needed

Q8. Q8: Do you agree with the proposed approach taken in section 8 of the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q9. Q9: Do you agree with the inclusion of section 9 in the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q10. Q10: Do you agree with the approach taken on service of documents in section 13 of the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q11. Q11: Do you agree with the approach for deemed service (in section 14 of the Draft Bill) or do you consider there is a more precise workable alternative?

Not sure but ISO standards are needed

Q12. Q12: Do you agree with the approach taken in section 16 of the Draft Bill?

Not sure but ISO standards are needed

Q13. Q13: Do you agree with the inclusion of duties in section 18 of the Draft Bill?

Not sure but ISO standards are needed

Q14. Q14: Do you agree with the inclusion of section 19 in the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q15. Q15: Do you agree with the inclusion of section 20 in Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q16. Q16: Do you agree with the approach taken in section 22 of the Draft Bill?

As long as ISO standards are used

Q17. Q17: Do you think the Draft Bill should make provision on duplication of criminal offences (section 26), or should we follow the approach taken in Scotland and leave this as a matter dealt with in the 1978 Act?

Try using ISO standards

Q18. Q18: Should the Draft Bill make provision about Acts binding the Crown (section 27), or should this be addressed in another way?

ISO standards are needed

Q19. Q19: Do you agree with the approach taken in section 30 of the Draft Bill?

ISO standards are needed

Q20. Q20: Do you consider that section 35(2)(a) of the Draft Bill provides an accurate reflection of the common law provision?

ISO standards are needed

Q21. Q21: Do you agree with the approach taken in section 33 of the Draft Bill?

Not sure but ISO standards are needed

Q22. Q22: Should the continued use of long titles in modern drafting of bills be reconsidered?

ISO standards

Q23. Q23: Do you have any views on the other matters which could be addressed by way of future legislation (as set out in Part 3 of the consultation paper)?

Introduce ISO standards

Q24. Q24: Do you have any comments on the draft regulatory impact assessment for the Draft Bill?

Iso

Q25. Q25: do you have any comments on the draft impact assessments for welsh language, children's rights, or equality and human rights?

ISO

Q26. Q26: We would like to know your views on the effect developing the Draft Bill could have on the Welsh language, in particular in respect of: helping people to use Welsh, and treating the Welsh language no less favourably than English. What effects do you think there would be? How could positive effects be increased, or negative effects be mitigated?

ISO

Q27. Q27: Please also explain how you believe the Draft Bill could be formulated or changed so as to have: positive effects or increased positive effects on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language, and no adverse effects on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language.

ISO

Q28. Q28: We have asked a number of specific questions. If you have views on any related issues that we have not specifically addressed, please set them out here:

Please use ISO standards
Everyone would be better off

Page 2: Submit your response

Q29. You are about to submit your response. Please ensure you are satisfied with the answers you have provided before sending.

Q29. You are about to submit your response. Please ensure you are satisfied with the answers you have provided before sending.

Name Mr R W Ebley

Organisation (if applicable) -

Q30. If you want to receive a receipt of your response, please provide an email address. Email address

██████████

Q31. Responses to consultations may be made public. To keep your response anonymous (including email addresses) tick the box.

No Response