

From: [REDACTED]
To: NDE
Subject: National Development Framework Consultation response
Date: 15 November 2019 15:25:58

Please could you explain to me what the point of having a Local Development Plan is, if the Environment Minister can over rule decisions taken by local Planning Officers and the Planning Inspectorate? Surely one person making a decision against the wishes of the majority is totally non-democratic. This has happened more than once in relation to major wind farm schemes, particularly in Mid-Wales. This is not acceptable.

Hilary Madeley

Sent from my Samsung Galaxy smartphone.