

Let's talk about:

Culture and Sport in Wales

Llywodraeth Cymru
Welsh Government

Culture and sport are part of everyday life

They are a part of Wales — who we are, where we have come from and where we are going.
They give us ways to enjoy life, express ourselves, stay active, learn and connect with other people.

This includes:

Wales is making a new 10-year plan

The Welsh Government is making a new Culture and Sport Plan for Wales... and we want to know what matters to you.

We want Wales to be a country where culture and sport are valued, supported and enjoyed by everyone across Wales.

We want Wales to be known as a great place for culture and sport.

We think these things might be important – do you agree?

A healthier Wales

Culture and sport help our physical health and mental wellbeing.

A resilient Wales

Culture and sport organisations, clubs, venues and the people who work in them have the support they need to keep going and growing.

i Resilient — able to cope and bounce back after problems.

A more connected Wales

Culture and sport bring people together and help everyone feel part of their community.

A wealthier Wales

Culture and sport support jobs, opportunities, businesses and tourism.

A skilled Wales

Culture and sport give children and young people opportunities to take part, learn new skills and develop their talents.

A bilingual and confident Wales

Culture and sport help us celebrate Wales and the Welsh language, here and around the world.

What do you think?

Your experiences and ideas can help shape the plan.

1. What is it like now?

Think:

- ➡ What's good about culture and sport where you live?
- ➡ What could be better?
- ➡ What makes it difficult for young people to take part?

2. What should it look like in 10 years?

Imagine Wales in 2036.

- ➡ What opportunities should young people have?
- ➡ What would make Wales a brilliant place for culture and sport?

3. How can it happen?

Think:

- ➡ What needs to change?
- ➡ What should we do?
- ➡ What would make the biggest difference?

Thanks for taking part – your ideas matter
