Welsh Government Housing Regulation

Regulatory Judgement

Linc Cymru Housing Association – L109

December 2017

The Welsh Ministers have powers under Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996 to regulate Registered Social Landlords in relation to the provision of housing and matters relating to governance and financial management.

The Welsh Ministers are publishing this Regulatory Judgement under sections 33A and 35 of the Housing Act 1996.

The judgement is published in accordance with the Regulatory Framework for Registered Social Landlords in Wales and the related performance standards.

<http://gov.wales/topics/housing-and-regeneration/services-and-support/regulation/regulatory-framework/?lang=en>

The judgement is based upon the Association's own evaluation of its compliance with the performance standards together with regulatory intelligence gained through on-going, co-regulatory, relationship management between the Regulator and the Association.

Basis of Judgement

This judgement is designed to provide the Registered Social Landlord, its tenants, service users and other stakeholders with an understanding of its financial viability and how well it is performing, at a specific moment in time, in relation to:

- Governance and Service Delivery
- Financial Management

The judgement must not be relied upon by any other party for any other purpose. The Registered Social Landlord is responsible for the completeness and accuracy of information provided to the Regulator.

Profile

Linc-Cymru Housing Association Limited (“Linc” or “the Association”) is a traditional housing association operating across ten local authority areas in South Wales and is registered under the Cooperative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014, with charitable rules.

Linc owns and manages 4,369 homes; 147 of which are for those with nursing home support needs. The Association provides homes for rent, both at social, intermediate and market rent levels and has also developed shared ownership properties. Linc has a range of housing for people with support needs, such as sheltered, supported and extra care accommodation, as well as registered nursing homes.

Linc operates seven extra care schemes across Cardiff, Newport and Blaenau-Gwent, two new schemes are currently on site in Bridgend County Borough under a partnership agreement with that Council and a further five schemes are planned following the Association being appointed as the preferred extra care provided by Rhondda Cynon Taf Council.
