The Firefighters' Pension Scheme (Wales) 2015: Purchase of Additional Pension – Factors and Guidance

Background

1. Responsibility for firefighters' pension schemes in Wales is devolved to the Welsh Ministers under the Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004 and the Public Service Pensions Act 2013. The Firefighters' Pension Scheme (Wales) Regulations 2015 came into force on 1 April 2015.
2. The Welsh Ministers have responsibility for the actuarial guidance for the 2015 Scheme factors after consultation with the Scheme Actuary. Scheme Managers (Fire and Rescue Authorities) are then required to implement the factors as detailed in the guidance.
3. Similar to factor reviews for the 1992 and 2007 Firefighter Pension Schemes, the approach for setting the factors and assumptions for the 2015 Scheme factors is that they are determined using the principle of actuarial equivalence using a "cost to scheme" approach (ie that the exchange of benefits is cost neutral from a scheme perspective).
4. All factors will be reviewed periodically which will depend on changes in the actuarial assumptions or following each cycle of future valuations of the Firefighters' Pension Scheme (Wales) 2015.
5. Scheme Managers and administrators should ensure that they use these latest factors.

Purchase of Additional Pension – Factors and Guidance

6. The actuarial guidance note attached to this circular at Annex 1 relate to payments for added pension in accordance with Schedule 1 of the 2015 Scheme Regulations. It sets out the general method for determining the amount of added pension to be credited to a member's added pension account.
7. This guidance relates only to benefits accrued under the 2015 Scheme Regulations. Some firefighters may also have benefits under the 1992 Scheme or the NFPS which should be dealt with separately according to relevant scheme guidance.
8. If you have any queries in relation to the content of this circular, please e-mail fire@wales.gsi.gov.uk in the first instance. However, please note individual scheme members should not be directed to the Welsh Government. The Welsh Government does not hold the detailed records about career histories which are needed to respond to such queries.
