The Welsh Government Learning Grant (Further Education) (Wales) Scheme 2020

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Scheme)

This Scheme provides for the payment of a means-tested grant (a “Welsh Government Learning Grant”) to help meet the costs of studying, to students aged 19 or over, ordinarily resident in Wales, and who take designated further education courses during the academic year beginning on or after 1 September 2020. The Welsh Government Learning Grant is available to eligible students whether they choose to study in Wales or elsewhere in the UK.

The Scheme comes into force on 1 September 2020 and applies in respect of the academic year beginning on or after 1 September 2020 but before 1 September 2021.

The Welsh Government Learning Grant (Further Education) (Wales) Scheme 2019 (2019 No. 25) remains in force in respect of the academic year beginning on or after 1 September 2019 but before 1 September 2020.

PART 2

ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility

3.—(1) An eligible student qualifies for support in connection with a period of full-time study or a period of part-time study undertaken during Academic Year 2020/2021 subject to and in accordance with this Scheme.

(2) A person is an eligible student in connection with a designated course if—

- (a) in assessing the person's application for support the Welsh Ministers determine that the person falls within one of the categories set out in Part 2 of the Schedule to this Scheme;
- (b) the person attained the age of 19 on or before 1 September 2020;
- (c) the person is not ineligible by reason of sub-paragraph (3); and
- (d) the person has signed a learning grant agreement.

(3) A person is ineligible if—

- (a) the person has, in the opinion of the Welsh Ministers, shown themselves by their conduct to be unfit to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant;
- (b) the person has already received a Welsh Government Learning Grant in relation to attendance on any course during Academic Year 2020/2021; or
- (c) there has been bestowed on, or paid to the person in relation to the person's attendance on the course—
  - (i) separate funding by the Welsh Government in respect of a work based learning programme<sup>(1)</sup>; or
  - (ii) such other financial support from public funds as determined by the Welsh Ministers.

Academic progression

4.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) and paragraph 5, the Welsh Ministers must not pay a Welsh Government Learning Grant to an eligible student in respect of Academic Year 2020/2021 or part of that year unless they are satisfied on reasonable grounds that the period of study concerned involves academic progression for the student in comparison with study undertaken by the student in previous academic years.

(1) Work Based Learning Programmes are delivered under sections 31 to 35 of the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (c. 21), section 10 of the Education Act 1996 (c. 56), section 2 of the Employment and Training Act 1973 (c. 50), and sections 60 and 58A of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32).

(2) The Welsh Ministers may pay a Welsh Government Learning Grant to an eligible student for a repeated academic year if that year is a repeat of a preceding academic year of a designated course that the student was unable to complete for reasons which the Welsh Ministers consider to be compelling.

Transfers

5. Where a student who is entitled to a Welsh Government Learning Grant in connection with a designated course transfers to another designated course comprising a period of full-time study or a period of part-time study during Academic Year 2020/2021, the Welsh Ministers may pay a Welsh Government Learning Grant to that student for the remainder of Academic Year 2020/2021, except that no Welsh Government Learning Grant is payable if—

- (a) the Welsh Ministers are satisfied on reasonable grounds that the new designated course does not involve academic progression for the student as compared to the designated course from which the student has transferred; and
- (b) the student enrolls on the designated course to which they are transferring more than 20 weeks after the start of the previous course.

PART 3

APPLICATIONS AND ENTITLEMENT

Applications

6.—(1) An applicant applies for support by completing and submitting to the Welsh Ministers—

- (a) the learning grant agreement signed by the applicant; and
- (b) if required by the Welsh Ministers, an application in such form as the Welsh Ministers may require.

(2) The learning grant agreement and any application must be accompanied by such documentation as the Welsh Ministers may require and must be submitted by such time as the Welsh Ministers may require.

(3) The Welsh Ministers may take such steps and make such enquiries as they consider necessary to determine whether the applicant is an eligible student, whether the applicant qualifies for support and the amount of support payable, if any.

(4) The Welsh Ministers must notify the applicant of whether or not the applicant qualifies for support and if the applicant does qualify, the amount of support payable in respect of Academic Year 2020/2021, if any.

(5) An applicant may apply for reassessment or the Welsh Ministers may reassess whether the applicant qualifies for support if such of the applicant's circumstances relevant to their application change either before or during Academic Year 2020/2021.

(6) Sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) apply in relation to such reassessment.

(7) Where a reassessment is carried out under sub-paragraph (5) and the Welsh Ministers make a subsequent notification under sub-paragraph (4) that the applicant qualifies for support the Welsh Ministers may—

- (a) back-date the payment to the date on which they received the applicant's application for a reassessment; or
- (b) back-date the payment to the date on which the applicant's circumstances changed.

Grant entitlement

7.—(1) (Subject to paragraph 8 and 15) an eligible student who qualifies for support in connection with a period of full-time study in accordance with this Scheme is entitled to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant as follows—

- (a) where the household income is £6,120 or less or where the student is a care leaver, the student is entitled to receive £1,500;
- (b) where the household income exceeds £6,120 but does not exceed £12,235, the student is entitled to receive £750; and
- (c) where the household income exceeds £12,235 but does not exceed £18,370, the student is entitled to receive £450.

(2) (Subject to paragraph 8 and 15) an eligible student who qualifies for support in connection with a period of part-time study in accordance with this Scheme is entitled to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant as follows—

- (a) where the household income is £6,120 or less or where the student is a care leaver, the student is entitled to receive £750;
- (b) where the household income exceeds £6,120 but does not exceed £12,235, the student is entitled to receive £450; and

- (c) where the household income exceeds £12,235 but does not exceed £18,370, the student is entitled to receive £300.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, an eligible student is a “care leaver” if the student—

- (a) starts the designated course in academic year 2020/2021;
- (b) is under the age of 25 on the first day of the first academic year of the designated course;
- (c) is, or has been, a category of young person defined in, or by virtue of, section 104 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014(1); and
- (d) between the student’s fourteenth birthday and the first day of the first academic year of the designated course, the student—
  - (i) was looked after, fostered or accommodated (within the meaning of sections 74 and 104 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014) for an aggregate period of 13 weeks or more, or
  - (ii) was a person with respect to whom a special guardianship order (within the meaning given by section 14A of the Children Act 1989(2)) was in force for a period of 13 weeks or more.

PART 4

PERSONS LEAVING CUSTODY OR DETENTION

Persons leaving custody or detention

8.—(1) This paragraph applies to persons detained following conviction in—

- (a) a prison (within the meaning of the Prison Act 1952(3)); or
- (b) a young offender institution (as mentioned in section 43 of that Act), and released on temporary licence to attend a designated course (any such person being a “detained person” for the purposes of this paragraph).

(1) 2014 anaw 4.

(2) 1989 c. 41; section 14A was inserted by the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (c. 38) and amended by the Children and Families Act 2014 (c. 6) and the Children and Young Persons Act 2008 (c. 23).

(3) 1952 c. 52.

(2) A detained person may apply for support in accordance with paragraph 6 at any time prior to completing their custodial sentence in Academic Year 2020/2021, but such application will not be considered by the Welsh Ministers until such time as the person has been released from custody.

(3) A detained person who—

- (a) applies for support for Academic Year 2020/2021 prior to completing their sentence in accordance with sub-paragraph (2);
- (b) is an eligible student; and
- (c) qualifies for support in connection with a period of full-time study in accordance with this Scheme, is entitled to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (5) and subject at all times to the provisions of paragraph 15.

(4) A detained person who—

- (a) applies for support for Academic Year 2020/2021 prior to completing their sentence in accordance with sub-paragraph (2);
- (b) is an eligible student; and
- (c) qualifies for support in connection with a period of part-time study in accordance with this Scheme, is entitled to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (5) and subject at all times to the provisions of paragraph 15.

(5) The Welsh Ministers must calculate an eligible student's entitlement to a Welsh Government Learning Grant under this paragraph in accordance with the following formula—

$$RE = WGLG \times RDF$$

Where—

“WGLG” (“GDLIC”) means—

£1,500 in relation to a detained person falling within sub-paragraph (3); and

£750 in relation to a detained person falling within sub-paragraph (4);

“RDF” (“FfDRh”) means—

- (i) 100% where the eligible student completes their custodial sentence in the first term of a designated course which is made up of either one, two or three terms in a single academic year;
- (ii) 60% where the eligible student completes their custodial sentence in the second term of a designated course which is made up of three terms in a single academic year;

- (iii) 50% where the eligible student completes their custodial sentence in the second term of a designated course which is made up of two terms in a single academic year;
- (iv) 30% where the eligible student completes their custodial sentence in the third term of a designated course which is made up of three terms in a single academic year; and

“RE” (“HA”) means the recalculated entitlement.

PART 5

FINANCIAL ASSESSMENT

Household income

9.—(1) Household income for the purpose of this Scheme is calculated in accordance with this paragraph and paragraphs 10 to 13.

(2) The household income is—

- (a) in the case of an eligible student who is not an independent eligible student—
  - (i) the residual income of the eligible student (calculated in accordance with paragraph 11), or
  - (ii) the residual income of the eligible student’s parents (calculated in accordance with paragraph 12), aggregated with the residual income of the partner of the student’s parent (calculated in accordance with paragraph 13), provided that the Welsh Ministers have selected that parent under paragraph 12(7), whichever of the two incomes is the higher;

- (b) in the case of an independent eligible student who has a partner, the residual income of the independent eligible student (calculated in accordance with paragraph 10(1)), or the residual income of the independent eligible student’s partner (calculated in accordance with paragraph 10), whichever of the two incomes is the higher;
- (c) in the case of an independent eligible student who does not have a partner, the residual income of the independent eligible student (calculated in accordance with paragraph 10(1)).

Residual income of independent eligible students and their partners

10.—(1) The residual income of an independent eligible student is that student's income from all sources in respect of the 2021 tax year, minus any amounts described in sub-paragraph (4) (unless already deducted in calculating the student's taxable income).

(2) The residual income of the partner of an independent eligible student is determined in accordance with paragraph 12, with the exception of sub-paragraphs (6) to (8) of paragraph 12, references to the eligible student's parent being construed as the independent eligible student's partner.

(3) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the independent eligible student and their partner have separated in the course of Academic Year 2020/2021, the partner's income is determined by reference to the partner's income, divided by fifty-two and multiplied by the number of complete weeks in Academic Year 2020/2021 in respect of which the Welsh Ministers determine that the independent eligible student and their partner are not separated.

(4) For the purpose of determining the residual income of an independent eligible student, there may be deducted from the independent eligible student's taxable income (unless already deducted in calculating the taxable income)—

- (a) the gross amount of—
  - (i) any premium or other sum paid during the tax year by the independent eligible student in relation to a pension (not being a premium payable under a policy of life insurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004<sup>(1)</sup>; or
  - (ii) where the independent eligible student's income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, the gross amount of any such premium or sum in respect of which relief would be given during the tax year if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;
- (b) the amount of any redundancy payment received during the tax year, up to a maximum of £30,000;
- (c) the gross amount of wages paid during the tax year in connection with domestic help due to the eligible student's incapacity, or the eligible student's partner's incapacity; and

(1) 2004 c. 12.

- (d) the gross amount of expenses in connection with employment during the tax year, for which tax relief was claimed.

Residual income of an eligible student who is not an independent eligible student

11.—(1) The residual income of an eligible student who is not an independent eligible student is that student's taxable income for the 2019 tax year.

(2) Where the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that the residual income of the eligible student in the 2021 tax year is, as a result of some event beyond the student's control, likely to be less than the eligible student's residual income in the 2019 tax year to such an extent that it would affect the student's entitlement if entitlement were to be based on the 2021 tax year they must, for the purpose of enabling the student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain the residual income for the 2021 tax year.

Residual income of parents of eligible students

12.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2), (6), (7) and (8), the residual income of the parent of an eligible student is that parent's taxable income in respect of the 2019 tax year after the application of sub-paragraphs (3), (4), (5) and (9).

(2) Where the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that the residual income of the parent in the 2021 tax year is, as a result of some event beyond the parent's control, likely to be less than the parent's residual income in the 2019 tax year to such an extent that it would affect the student's entitlement if entitlement were to be based on the 2021 tax year they must, for the purpose of enabling the eligible student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain the residual income for the 2021 tax year.

(3) Where the eligible student's parent satisfies the Welsh Ministers that their income is wholly or mainly derived from the profits of a business or profession carried on by that parent, then any reference in this paragraph to a tax year means the earliest period of twelve months which ends after the start of the tax year in question and in respect of which accounts are kept relating to that business or profession.

(4) Where an eligible student's parent is in receipt of any income which does not form part of the parent's taxable income by reason only that—

- (a) the parent is not resident, ordinarily resident or domiciled in the United Kingdom or another Member State;
- (b) the income does not arise in the United Kingdom or another Member State; or

- (c) the income arises from an office, service or employment, income from which is exempt from tax in pursuance of any legislation, the parent's taxable income for the purposes of this Scheme is computed as though such income were part of the parent's taxable income.

(5) Where the income of the eligible student's parent is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, it is computed under the provisions of this Scheme in the currency of that Member State and the income of the eligible student's parent for the purposes of this Scheme is the sterling value of that income determined in accordance with the average rate published by HMRC for 2018<sup>(1)</sup>.

(6) Where one of the eligible student's parents dies either before or during Academic Year 2020/2021 and that parent's income has been or would be taken into account for the purpose of determining the household income, the household income is—

- (a) where the parent dies before Academic Year 2020/2021, determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent; or
- (b) where the parent dies during Academic Year 2020/2021, the aggregate of—
  - (i) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of both parents, being the proportion in respect of that part of Academic Year 2020/2021 during which both parents were alive; and
  - (ii) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent, being the proportion in respect of that part of Academic Year 2020/2021 remaining after the death of the other parent.

(7) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the parents of the eligible student are separated for the duration of Academic Year 2020/2021, the household income is determined by reference to the income of whichever parent the Welsh Ministers consider the more appropriate under the circumstances.

(8) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the parents have separated in the course of Academic Year 2020/2021, the household income is determined by reference to the aggregate of—

- (a) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined in accordance with subparagraph (7), being the proportion in respect of that part of Academic Year 2020/2021 during which the parents are separated; and

(1) <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/exchange-rates-for-customs-and-vat>.

- (b) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined otherwise in respect of the remainder of Academic Year 2020/2021.

(9) For the purpose of determining the residual income of an eligible student's parent, there may be deducted from the parent's taxable income (unless already deducted in calculating the taxable income)—

- (a) the gross amount of—
  - (i) any premium or other sum paid during the tax year by the eligible student's parent in relation to a pension (not being a premium payable under a policy of life insurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004, or
  - (ii) where the eligible student's parent's income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, the gross amount of any such premium or sum in respect of which relief would be given during the tax year if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;
- (b) the gross amount of wages paid during the tax year in connection with domestic help due to the incapacity of—
  - (i) the eligible student;
  - (ii) the eligible student's parent; or
  - (iii) the eligible student's parent's partner;and
- (c) the gross amount of expenses in connection with employment during the tax year, for which tax relief was claimed.

Residual income of the partner of an eligible student's parent

13.—(1) The residual income of the partner of an eligible student's parent, whose residual income is part of the household income by virtue of paragraph 9(2)(a), is determined in accordance with paragraph 12, (other than sub-paragraphs (6) to (8) of paragraph 12), references to the eligible student's parent being construed as references to the eligible student's parent's partner.

(2) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the eligible student's parent and the eligible student's parent's partner are separated for the duration of Academic Year 2020/2021, the partner's income is not taken into account in determining household income.

(3) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the eligible student's parent and the eligible student's parent's partner have separated in the course of Academic Year 2020/2021, the partner's income is determined by reference to the partner's income under sub-paragraph (1) divided by fifty-two and multiplied by the number of complete weeks in Academic Year 2020/2021 in which the Welsh Ministers determine that the eligible student's parent and the eligible student's parent's partner are not separated.

(4) Where an eligible student's parent has more than one partner in Academic Year 2020/2021, the provisions of this paragraph apply in relation to each.

Independent eligible student

14. For the purpose of this Scheme an eligible student who falls in any one or more of the following cases is an independent eligible student—

- (a) the applicant is aged 25 or over on the first day of the designated course;
- (b) the applicant is married or is in a civil partnership on the first day of the designated course, whether or not the marriage or civil partnership is still subsisting;
- (c) the applicant has no parent living;
- (d) the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that as at the first day of the designated course neither parent of the applicant can be found or that it is not reasonably practicable to get in touch with either of them;
- (e) the applicant has not communicated with either parent during the period of one year before the first day of the designated course or, in the opinion of the Welsh Ministers, the applicant has demonstrated on other grounds that the applicant is irreconcilably estranged from their parents;
- (f) the applicant was looked after by a local authority within the meaning of section 74 of the Social Services and Well-Being (Wales) Act 2014<sup>(1)</sup> or as the case may be section 22 of the Children Act 1989<sup>(2)</sup> throughout any three-month period ending on or after the date on which the applicant attained the age of 16 and before the first day of the designated course and has not at any time during the period from their sixteenth birthday been under the charge or control of their parents;

(1) 2014 (anaw. 4).

(2) 1989 c. 41 as amended.

- (g) the applicant's parents reside outside the European Union and the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that either—
  - (i) the assessment of the household income by reference to their residual income would place those parents in jeopardy; or
  - (ii) it would not be reasonably practicable for those parents as a result of a calculation in relation to paragraph 9 to send any relevant funds to the United Kingdom;
- (h) paragraph 12(7) applies and the parent whom the Welsh Ministers considered the more appropriate for the purposes of those paragraphs has died (irrespective of whether the parent in question had a partner);
- (i) the applicant is a member of a religious order and resides in a house of that order on the first day of the designated course;
- (j) the applicant has care of a person who is under 18 years of age on the first day of the designated course or during Academic Year 2020/2021 acquires care of a person under 18 years of age;
- (k) the applicant ("A" in this sub-paragraph) has supported A out of A's earnings for any period or periods ending before the first day of the designated course of (in aggregate) not less than three years, and for the purposes of this paragraph A is treated as supporting A out of their earnings during any period in which—
  - (i) A was participating in arrangements for training for the unemployed under any scheme operated by, sponsored or funded by any state authority or agency, whether national, regional or local ("a relevant authority");
  - (ii) A was in receipt of benefit payable by any relevant authority in respect of a person who is available for employment but who is unemployed;
  - (iii) A was available for employment and had complied with any requirement of registration imposed by a relevant authority as a condition of entitlement for participation in arrangements for training or receipt of benefit;
  - (iv) A received any pension, allowance or other benefit paid by any person by reason of a disability, confinement, injury or sickness.

PART 6 PAYMENTS

Attendance

15.—(1) The Welsh Ministers may recalculate in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) an eligible student's entitlement to a Welsh Government Learning Grant if the student's attendance on the designated course in respect of which the student made an application for a Welsh Government Learning Grant is unsatisfactory.

(2) The formula for re-calculation is—

$$\text{RE} = \frac{\text{AA}}{\text{PA}} \times \text{WGLG}$$

Where—

“AA” (“GB”) means the number of days attendance by the student notified to the Welsh Ministers by the institution (or provider) delivering the course, attendance being deemed to include absence through illness of periods not exceeding 60 days in total;

“WGLG” (“GDLIC”) means the entitlement to the Welsh Government Learning Grant in accordance with paragraph 7 or 8 as appropriate;

“PA” (“PP”) means the number of days from the first to last day of required attendance on the course; and

“RE” (“HA”) means the recalculated entitlement.

Payment of Welsh Government Learning Grant

16.—(1) The Welsh Ministers must pay (subject to sub-paragraph (3)) the grant for which an eligible student qualifies under this Scheme (as may be reassessed or recalculated as provided for in this Scheme) in such manner, in such instalments (if any) and at such times as they consider appropriate and in the exercise of their functions under this paragraph, they may make provisional payments pending the final calculation of the amount of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for which the eligible student qualifies.

(2) The Welsh Ministers may make it a condition of entitlement to payment that the eligible student provides them with particulars of a bank or building society account in the United Kingdom into which payments may be made by electronic transfer.

(3) The Welsh Ministers may suspend or withhold payment of the Welsh Government Learning Grant or part of it to student if—

(a) any information submitted to the Welsh Ministers by or on behalf of the student is incorrect in any material respect; or

- (b) the student becomes bankrupt or suffers any distress, execution, attachment or other process affecting any of the student's assets; or
- (c) the student at any time in the opinion of the Welsh Ministers shows themselves by their conduct to be unfit to receive a Welsh Government Learning Grant.

Overpayments

17. A person must, if so required by the Welsh Ministers, repay any amount paid to that person under this Scheme which for whatever reason exceeds the amount of the Welsh Government Learning Grant to which that person is entitled under this Scheme.

18. The Welsh Ministers may at any time request from a person information which they consider is required to recover a Welsh Government Learning Grant from that person.

19. Where the Welsh Ministers have requested information under paragraph 18, they may withhold any payment of the Welsh Government Learning Grant until the person provides the information requested or provides a satisfactory explanation for not complying with the request.
