

The Abortion Act 1967 – Approval of a Class of Place for Treatment for the Termination of Pregnancy (Wales) 2022

24 February 2022

This approval supersedes the approval of 31 March 2020 and comes into force on the date it is made. This approval will continue to be effective until it is superseded by additional or alternative approval.

The Welsh Ministers make the following approval in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1(3) and (3A)(1) of the Abortion Act 1967(2).

Interpretation

1. In this approval—

“home” (“cartref”) means, in the case of a pregnant woman, the place in Wales where a pregnant woman has her permanent address or usually resides or, in the case of a registered medical practitioner, the place in Wales where a registered medical practitioner has their permanent address or usually resides;

“approved place” (“man cymeradwy”) means a hospital in Wales, as authorised under section 1(3) of the Abortion Act 1967, or a place in Wales approved under that section.

Approval of class of place

2. The home of a registered medical practitioner is approved as a class of place for treatment for the termination of pregnancy for the purposes of prescribing the medicines known as Mifepristone and Misoprostol to be used in treatment carried out in the manner specified in paragraph 4.

3. The home of a pregnant woman who is undergoing treatment for the purposes of termination of her pregnancy is approved as a class of place where the treatment for termination of pregnancy may be carried out where that treatment is carried out in the manner specified in paragraph 4.

4. The treatment must be carried out in the following manner—

(a) the pregnant woman has –

- i) attended an approved place;
- ii) had a consultation with an approved place via video link, telephone conference or other electronic means, or

(1) Section 1(3A) was inserted by section 37(3) of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 1990. The powers of the Secretary of State were transferred, in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales by the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672). The functions of the National Assembly for Wales were transferred to the Welsh Ministers under section 162 of, and paragraph 30 of Schedule 11 to, the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32).

(2) 1967 c. 67.

iii) had a consultation with a registered medical practitioner via video link, telephone conference or other electronic means; and

(b) the pregnant woman is prescribed Mifepristone and Misoprostol to be taken for the purposes of the termination of her pregnancy and the gestation of the pregnancy has not exceeded nine weeks and six days at the time the Mifepristone is taken.
