

2.2B Screenshot Welsh Government website jobs page

or our business including appointments.

We welcome applications from individuals regardless of age; marriage (including equal/same sex marriage) and civil partnership; sexual orientation; sex, gender identity and expression; disability (whether they have an impairment or health condition); whether they are neurodivergent or use British Sign Language; race, religion or belief or pregnancy/maternity.

We welcome and encourage applications from everyone, including groups currently underrepresented in our workforce such as people from a Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic people, LGBT+ people and disabled people.

We pride ourselves as being an employer of choice, an organisation in which people want to work and are proud to work. For this reason, we have put the principles of human rights, equality, fairness, dignity and respect at the heart of our values.

Our staff diversity networks support underrepresented groups within the Welsh Government.

- Disability Awareness and Support
- Minority Ethnic Staff Network
- PRISM (LGBT+)
- Women Together
- Mind Matters (Mental Health)

