Dear Nadhim,

Thank you for your letter of 30 November updating me on plans for your department to commission a Queen's Platinum Jubilee commemorative book for primary aged children in the UK.

I am grateful for your detailed update and the commitment to work with the Welsh Government to develop this book. As you suggest, it is vital for us to work together to ensure that the final product reflects the diverse histories and communities of Wales for our primary aged children.

I therefore look forward to seeing further details of the proposed content in order for me to fully commit to support the distribution of the book to primary school children in Wales. I have asked my officials to continue to work closely with your department in taking this proposed book forward.

I understand my officials have sent your department the figures for the numbers of relevant pupils in relation to this academic year, as you requested.

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy Miles AS/MS
