Dear

ATISN 1662 – Women’s Residential Centre C2A

Thank you for your request which I received on 14 September 2022. You asked for:

Information confirming where and when Julie James AS, Minister for Climate Change, spoke to local residents in relation to the Residential Women’s Centre, Swansea and how this was organised.

Our response

I am writing to inform you that no discussions were held between Julie James, in her capacity as Minister for Climate Change and local residents in relation to the Residential Women’s Centre.

The Welsh Government holds information on Julie James’ activity as a Minister, but we do not hold information on her activity or engagements in her constituency role as the MS for Swansea West. You may wish to contact her constituency office who may hold the information you are seeking. You can contact the office at julie.james@senedd.wales.

Next steps

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government’s handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government’s Freedom of Information Officer at:

Information Rights Unit,
Welsh Government,
Cathays Park,
Cardiff,
CF10 3NQ

or Email: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales

Please remember to quote the ATISN reference number above.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire,
SK9 5AF.

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

Yours sincerely
