

Theme 1: Increasing the number of Welsh speakers

Number of individuals that continue learning beyond Entry Level increases – 11% to 14% Foundation Level, and 19% to 25% at Intermediate Level and above.

Cymraeg for Kids programme delivers 2,188 live support sessions to almost 13,400 parents/carers and 14,000 children.

Welsh language immersion for latecomer learners provision in schools and designated centres expanded with £2.2m new funding.

Mudiad Meithrin create 12 new Welsh-medium nursery groups as part of the Set Up and Succeed (SAS) Scheme.

Theme 2: Increasing the use of Welsh

319 employers take part in the Work Welsh programme. 4,539 employees completed the self-study online courses, 1,549 followed the blended learning course, and 216 followed intensive learning courses.

Helo Blod received 3,992 requests for support and to translate text – 2,044 by businesses, 1,193 by charities and 755 by individuals.

5,000 attended Dydd Miwsig Cymru digital festival, with 260,108 viewing video content.

Eisteddfod festivals continue online.

Eisteddfod T attracts 12,000 competitors.

Eisteddfod AmGen broadcasts sessions with 35% more screens watching online sessions in 2021, and YouTube audience more than doubled since 2020.

Digital Tafwyl festival had a global audience of 39,700 – an increase of 4,700 people since 2020.

Theme 3: Creating favourable conditions – infrastructure and context

Welsh language discussed at an international level at the British-Irish Council Summit in St Fagans.

Consultation launched on draft Welsh Language Communities Housing Plan.

2050

Cymraeg 2050: Work Programme 2021 to 2026 published.