

10 October 2022

Dear

ATISN 16721 - Health planning

Thank you for your request to the Welsh Government for information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) received on 04 October 2022 relating to health planning. You requested the following:

- How is the government dealing with over-populated hospitals?

Response

Welsh Government has launched the Six goals for urgent and emergency care: policy handbook for 2021 to 2026 to set out our priorities for urgent and emergency care to ensure that patients get the right care, in the right place, first time.

The 6 goals handbook describes our immediate and longer term priorities. Health boards and partners will take these forward to support:

- an improved urgent and emergency care offer
- better outcomes
- improved staff and patient experience
- better value

Next Steps

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name and address. The Welsh Government will be the data processor for this information and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, it will be processed in order to fulfil our public task and meet our legal obligations under the Act to provide you with a response.

We will only use this personal information to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. We will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right:

- to be informed of the personal data we hold about you and to access it
- to require us to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- to (in certain circumstances) object to or restrict processing
- for (in certain circumstances) your data to be 'erased'

- to (in certain circumstances) data portability
- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection

For further information about the information which the Welsh Government holds and its use, or if you wish to exercise your rights under the GDPR, please see contact details below:
