Dear

Complaint in respect of ATISN 17203 – First Minister’s meeting with HRH Prince William on 11 September 2022

Thank you for your request which was received by the Welsh Government on 2 April 2023. Please accept my apologies for the delay in sending this response to you.

I have considered your complaint in accordance with the procedure outlined in Requesting information from the Welsh Government which is available by post on request or via the internet.

I have discussed your complaint with colleagues within Cabinet Division who handled your original request in conjunction with the First Minister’s office. I have concluded that a thorough search was undertaken to identify any information related to the meeting in question, between the First Minister and HRH Prince William, and that the searches conducted would have identified any and all information related to your request. I have concluded that the original decision is upheld and that no information is held by the Welsh Government that relates to the environment, or issues which have consequences and implications for the environment (as defined by the EIRs), in relation to the meeting between the First Minister and HRH Prince William on 11 September 2022.

If you remain dissatisfied with this response you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
