Dear

ATISN 17482 – Reviewing harm to health from Incinerator particulates.

Thank you for your request to the Welsh Government for information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) received on 12 May 2023 relating to the incineration emissions. Please accept our apologies for the delay in responding.

You requested the following:

- please disclose any internal reviews your officers have undertaken and exchanges with PHW over the issue, in the decade since your response to the Senedd

Response

Following a search of our records, Welsh Government does not hold information which falls into scope of your request and can confirm that no internal reviews have been undertaken.

Welsh Government is advised by experts at Public Health Wales and UK Health Security Agency on matters of public health concern which includes incinerator emissions and health effects.

Public Health Wales published their view on incinerator emissions and health effects in January 2020 and is committed to work with other UK public health agencies to keep the position under review.

Next Steps

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name and address. The Welsh Government will be the data processor for this information and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, it will be processed in order to fulfil our public task and meet our legal obligations under the Act to provide you with a response.

We will only use this personal information to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. We will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right:

- to be informed of the personal data we hold about you and to access it
- to require us to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- to (in certain circumstances) object to or restrict processing
- for (in certain circumstances) your data to be 'erased'
- to (in certain circumstances) data portability

- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection

For further information about the information which the Welsh Government holds and its use, or if you wish to exercise your rights under the GDPR, please see contact details below:

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government's handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government's Freedom of Information Officer at:
Information Rights Unit,
Welsh Government,
Cathays Park,
Cardiff,
CF10 3NQ

or Email: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales

Please remember to quote the ATISN reference number above.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire,
SK9 5AF.

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process

Yours sincerely,
