Subject: call from James Glover Maritime Systems

Hi REDACTED

I have had a call REDACTED from Maritime Systems on who would like someone to call him re the Welsh Gov announcement. He says there is nothing wrong with his devices for Wales.

REDACTED is travelling here today and REDACTED so I have come to you .

His number is REDACTED.

He was very pleasant and said he has REDACTED fishers signed up and he wants to chat about how he can make sure Welsh fishers are not caught up in the issues in England.

I said the announcement was to say that his device does not meet the Welsh requirements and he said that's not true. Wales do not need an MMO approved device and there's nothing wrong with his so he needs to have a chat to see what is to happen going forward.

Kind Regards
