Subject: RE: Freedom of Information request - Volume of casework complaints for speeding and total volume for Dawn Bowden

Dear

Thank you for your email below. As you have referred to Dawn Bowden and used the term MS, I am interpreting this request as relating to her constituency role. I can confirm that the Welsh Government does not hold information in relation to the Senedd or Members of Senedd.

You can direct your request to the Senedd Commission using details at the attached link Access to information \(senedd.wales\) or, with your agreement, I can transfer the request on your behalf. If we receive no response from you by 2 October, we will take no further action on your request.

Kind regards

Subject: Freedom of Information request - Volume of casework complaints for speeding and total volume for Dawn Bowden

Dear Welsh Government,

Dawn Bowden MS has claimed on social media her largest volume of casework complaints is speeding motorists.

I would like to know over the past 3 years what's the total volume of complaints Dawn has received and how many of these were speeding related please.

Yours faithfully,
