Dear all,

I am responding in my colleague [REDACTED] absence.

ERI have confirmed that they would like to take the opportunity to meet with you on 8th November at 1.30pm.

They have also requested that they be able to give a short presentation about ERI, what they do and their plans for remediating Bedwas Tip. If they could have access to the screen, the presentation will be given by their director Steve Williams and will take about 20 minutes.

Hefin is unable to attend at this time due to Plenary commitments, but [REDACTED] and I will attend on his behalf.

I would be grateful if you could confirm the details at your earliest convenience.

Best wishes,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email and please accept my apologies for the delay in getting back to you.

Unfortunately, due to a heavily committed diary, the Minister will be unable to meet with ERI Reclamation, and she has asked me to pass on her apologies for this. However, the Minister has offered for them to have a meeting with her officials on her behalf. Should this be suitable, I'd be grateful if you could contact the [REDACTED] mailbox (Cc'd) to make arrangements for a mutually convenient time please?

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Good afternoon

Hefin recently met with [REDACTED] of ERI Reclamation to discuss the company's proposals to remediate and restore Bedwas Tip, near Caerphilly, in partnership with Caerphilly County Borough Council.

ERI would like to meet the Minister to discuss their plans further, including how they could possibly help the Welsh Government to deliver on its coal tip safety policy objectives.

If the Minister would be willing and able to meet, we would be grateful if you could let us know so that we can begin to facilitate.

Kind regards
