

12 April 2024

Dear

Request for Information – ATISN 20364

Thank you for your request for information dated 13 March.

Information requested

Regarding the report - <https://www.gosafe.org/campaigns-and-operations/20mph-engagement-and-enforcement/operation-ugain/>

You have asked for the actual evidence behind this data? Where and how was it gathered and who by? How many different road types were observed? A roads, B roads, side streets etc? Was the data gathered in a variety of locations nationally or just in one small area? Time of day EG rush hour, late evening, week day, weekend? Over what time period was the data collected?

Our response

We don't hold the information requested. The Operation Ugain campaign was instigated and run by GoSafe in conjunction with Welsh Police.

Further details are published on their website GoSafe | Wales Road Casualty Reduction Partnership. Or you can request more specific information via - Freedom Of Information | GoSafe Welsh Road Casualty Reduction Partnership.

Next steps

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government's handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government's Freedom of Information Officer at:

Information Rights Unit, Welsh Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ or Email: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales. Please remember to quote the ATISN reference number above.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

Yours sincerely
