Hi [REDACTED]

Hope you are well.

Just wondering if there is any update on this application, as it has nearly been 3 months since your last response which was “I know my Team are looking at the case. I will ask them for an update on the current position.” and over 4 months since we were told “we are close to reaching a conclusion on the extent of additional work. A couple of discussions taking place tomorrow before we can confirm. At the moment it’s looking like a decision in four weeks time but I’ll confirm on Monday/Tuesday”

Any level of communication would be appreciated.

Kind Regards

Hi [REDACTED]

Hope you are well.

It's been a number of weeks since the last update, and within the interim period my Regional Chairman has now written to the First Minister, and we are awaiting a response.

Are you able to shed any light on the application and the likely decision timescales?

Kind Regards

Hi [REDACTED]

It's been a few weeks since my last chaser and still no reply.

Our Regional Chairman will now be writing directly to the First Minister and the Cabinet Members for both Housing and Planning specifically asking for an update on the application.

As highlighted in previous communications all we are after is some level of correspondence on the timeline for decision on the application. Back in February yourself and colleagues communicated to us that a potential decision was due by the end of March.

Kind Regards

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you are well.

As we have yet to receive a response to be below, I am coming under increasing pressure from my Regional Chairman regarding an update. Are you in a position to update please?

Our Regional Chairman is intending to write to Ministers requesting an update directly, and if we can avoid that, I believe it would be much easier for all parties.

Kind Regards

[REDACTED]

Following correspondence below things have seemed to have gone quiet regarding progress of this decision, and obviously we are now passed the initial indicated timescale noted below.

Therefore, are you able to respond with a new update or a new timetable for a decision.

I am coming under increasing pressure from my Regional Chairman to obtain some form of update from Welsh Government.

Kind Regards

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you are well.

Noting below you were hopeful of being able to give an update on this appeal application by the middle of this week.

Just wondering whether this is still the case.

Kind Regards

[REDACTED]

Thanks for your email, [REDACTED] has asked me to respond. We have been relooking at the appropriate assessment to make sure the passage of time has not affected the work undertaken to date. We should reach a conclusion on that next week, which will enable us to give you a firmer timescale for the decision issuing. I'll email you again around the middle of next week.

Many thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

I hope this message finds you well.

I wanted to follow up on my previous email below to enquire if there have been any updates. We are obviously not expecting a final decision at this stage, but an estimated timeframe would be greatly appreciated as our Regional Chairman plans to write to the Minister for Planning, Rebecca Evans, regarding this matter early next week.

However, if you're in a position to provide an insight, I can ensure this is pulled to save you and the Welsh Government's correspondence team some time in drafting a reply as I'm conscious you'll have a million and one things to handle.

I'm on [REDACTED] if easier.

Thank you in advance.

Best regards,

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you are well? It was great to be part of [REDACTED] Deep Dive discussion last week – I thought it sparked a very interesting conversation.

Following that meeting, I wanted to reach out regarding our presence at Heol Y Cefn, so apologies for the unexpected email.

Over the past year, I've been fostering a positive and constructive relationship with some of your colleagues at Welsh Government, including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. While they are more involved in the Land Division, this collaboration has helped bring together good progress on sites like East Newport. I believe this demonstrates that WG and Persimmon can successfully work together to deliver both private and social housing at scale, aligning with key WG agenda items such as Net Zero.

I fully appreciate that Heol Y Cefn is a sensitive and complex application to comment on at this stage, and I'm certainly not seeking a decision from you. However, I believe it would be valuable to have some level of discussion or communication between both parties regarding an anticipated timeline for such a decision.

Since the scheme was referred back to WG and Ministers, we've had very little engagement regarding the application. I'm simply seeking an update, as the former Housing Minister had promised one during a meeting with our Regional Chairman last May. However, we fully recognise that political events and resource issues may have contributed to delays.

As you'll be aware, it was originally expected to be determined by September 2022. Our priority throughout and remains working in partnership and collaboration with the Welsh Government.

I'd be happy to meet or discuss this further, but if you're able to provide even the slightest indication of a potential timeline, it would be greatly appreciated.

With kind regards,

[Redacted]
