Information requested

Thank you for your requests for information regarding Community Energy Wales, Welsh Government Energy Service, Ynni Cymru scheme & Ynni Teg Cyf. I have collated all into the following response.

Our response

In the first instance, I am of the view that the information you want me to search for is environmental information and as such I have considered your request under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs). 'Environmental information' is defined in the Regulations as (inter alia) 'information on measures (including administrative measures), such as policies, legislation, plans, programmes, environmental agreements, and activities affecting or likely to affect the state of the elements of the environment, such as air and atmosphere, water, soil, land, landscape and natural sites, and also factors such as substances, energy, noise, radiation or waste likely to affect the state of the elements of the environment above'.

I have concluded that your request is both voluminous and complex and will be very time consuming to deal with. Under the EIRs, there is no appropriate costs limit above which public authorities are not required to deal with requests for information. However, Reg 12(4)(b), manifestly unreasonable request, can apply if the cost or burden of dealing with a request is too great. This position was confirmed in the Upper Tribunal case of Craven v The Information Commissioner and the Department of Energy and Climate Change [2012] UKUT442 (AAC).

"Taking the position under the EIR first, it must be right that a public authority is entitled to refuse a single extremely burdensome request under regulation 12(4)(b) as "manifestly unreasonable", purely on the basis that the cost of compliance would be too great (assuming, of course, it is also satisfied that the public interest test favours maintaining the exception). The absence of any provision in the EIR equivalent to section 12 of FOIA makes such a conclusion inescapable."

Public Interest Test

Reg 12(4)(b) is subject to the public interest test. I have given consideration to the public interest in disclosing the information. The Welsh Government recognises the general public interest in openness and transparency and that releasing the information would help the public gain a better understanding of the projects in question and decisions made regarding this subject. The Welsh Government also recognises the public has an interest in how their money is to be, or has been, used to ensure Government gets the best value from the public purse.

A substantial volume of the information requested is stored on our Electronic Document and Records Management System, known as iShare, and within Outlook e-mail accounts for individual officials. iShare is the corporate repository for the majority of information created and received by Welsh Government officials in the course of their duties that must be retained for business or historical purposes. Further information about iShare can be found under Section 7 of our Information and Records Management policy, which is available on the Welsh Government website.

Documents are saved on iShare using naming conventions appropriate to the effective recording of information for our own purposes. Setting our systems in this way, and in line with our Records Management policy, enables effective delivery and will not necessarily lend themselves to being easily interrogated for generic requests for information. Where the Welsh Government believes providing such information would involve tasks that would be time consuming to deal with, in line with our obligations under the section 45 Code of Practice, we inform the requester of that fact and invite them to narrow down or re-focus their requests.

An initial iShare search request only relating to ATISN 26427 would take the following -

1. Collation of SLES Assessment Materials

This includes gathering moderation notes, score adjustments, assessor-to-assessor correspondence, and assessment forms for the following applications: SLES222, SLES263, SLES253, and SLES255. It also requires contacting all seven assessors, 3 x YC & 4 x WGES and reviewing their emails and Teams correspondence.

Estimated time: 6 hours

2. Collation of Internal Guidance

This covers internal guidance or instructions provided to assessors on WIMD score uplift, deliverability scoring, and financial risk scoring.

Estimated time: 3 hours

As this is only one of your many requests the Welsh Government therefore considers the balance of the public interest lies in favour of refusing your request. This is because it is believed your request would place a substantial and unreasonable burden on Welsh Government resources which are already stretched and on balance, it is considered the public interest would be better served by not deploying our resources in these numerous requests but instead undertaking core work. As part of these considerations, we have applied the statutory presumption in favour of disclosure under Reg12(2) of the Regulations but our view is that the significant burden that this request would impose outweighs the public interest in releasing this information.

Your request is therefore refused under Reg 12(4)(b) – manifestly unreasonable, of the EIRs, for the reasons outlined above.

You may wish to refine your request by narrowing its scope by being a lot more specific about what information you particularly wish to obtain, including by reducing the number of requests relevant to the information required. If you do refine your request in this way, this will be treated as a new request.
