SCHEDULE 1 The Purposes

The Purpose of the Funding is to support the Japanese Saturday School to continue operating during the current financial year, 1st April 2021 – 31st March 2022

Purpose of Agreement

There is a need for the funding provided by the Welsh Government to continue if the school is to survive.

This agreement will provide both the required funding and be a vehicle to enable greater engagement by Welsh Government with the Japanese Saturday School.

This document sets out:-

- Funding arrangements
- The Governance structures to ensure the work is being effectively delivered and is yielding tangible benefits to the wellbeing goals

Joint Priorities and Opportunities

By creating this partnership agreement, we would maximize the benefits for Wales from any funding provided, including:

- Ensure that Wales continues to be an attractive proposition to Japanese families relocating to Wales
- Promote Wales as a welcoming nation which encourages different cultures and promotes diversity – in line with the international strategy.
- Ensure that the Japanese community feel integrated into Welsh society and have a strong affinity to Wales on their return to Japan, which links into both the International Strategy and Diaspora Action Plan.

Working closely with the school, would link into the three core ambitions of the International Strategy; We will grow the economy by increasing exports and attracting inward investment – funding the school would provide an additional incentive for Japanese companies to invest (and reinvest) in Wales, We will raise Wales' profile on the international stage – working with the school to link into the work of the Welsh Government Tokyo Office and the Welsh Envoy in Japan, We will establish Wales as a globally responsible nation – funding the school would show that Wales is a welcoming nation to overseas nationals and a country that embraces diversity and different cultures.
