

24 April 2026

Dear

ATISN 26906

Information requested

I refer to your email of 17 April addressed to Planning and Environment Decisions Wales (PEDW) regarding the decision to call in planning application P/25/0037, which I received on 20 April. You asked for a wide variety of information in relation to the call-in request from Delyth Jewell MS, focusing on the reasons given for calling in the decision in the decision letter issued on behalf of the Welsh Ministers, and particularly the phrase “new coal tips”.

I have interpreted your request as all correspondence or other communication from and to Delyth Jewell MS in relation to the call-in request, and the advice to the Cabinet Secretary for Economy, Energy and Planning in relation to the call-in request.

Our response

The information falling within the above definition is enclosed. No information falling within the scope of the above definition has been withheld.

Next steps

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government’s handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government’s Freedom of Information Officer at:

Information Rights Unit,
Welsh Government,
Cathays Park,
Cardiff,
CF10 3NQ
or Email: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales

Please remember to quote the ATISN reference number above.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office,

Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire,
SK9 5AF.

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

You have also asked in your email about information related to “new coal tips” as part of the decision. The advice disclosed with this letter refers to “new coal tips” which was the term used by those requesting call-in. If you consider the decision of the Welsh Ministers to call in the application is unlawful for referring to this term, it is open to you to apply for judicial review of the decision, but we would recommend seeking your own legal advice before doing so.

Yours sincerely
