

(1557-1558) FORMER NONCONFORMIST CHAPELS, Pwllheli.

(1557) Baptist, North Street (Plate 42), 1816, 31 ft. E.-W. by 24 ft., of rubble masonry. The main façade on the long S. side has two tall windows between two flat-headed doorways, and there are blocked low windows on the N. The interior has been stripped of its fittings, except for the gallery which is lighted by two gable-end windows and carries '1816' painted on the wainscotted front. The pulpit formerly stood between the S. windows.

Condition: of building good, interior stripped.
