Hi [REDACTED],

I've contacted our control and at this time there are no issues identified in that area regarding flow/pressure etc, all steady. They understand that it is linked to the local quarry, who when blasting earlier today, may have resulted in this (although how is unknown). If I receive any further information, I'll keep you updated.

Regards

Hi [REDACTED]

I've been forwarded the attached images showing what appears or is suggested as a potential burst on Heol Berry Street, Gwaelod-y-Garth, Cardiff.

Are you aware if there is an incident?

Thanks,
