Hi Redacted Official 9 WG

The Caerphilly Judicial Review case has published its result, and has found in favour of the council. We are preparing a briefing for Redacted Official 10 WG as the result makes direct reference to her responsibilities under the 1964 Act. We have the following line which was supplied by Local Government team – do you have an update please? We are keen to get this to the Minister today before she goes on leave as there has already been press coverage of this.

- In terms of local government settlement, Caerphilly had a £16.3m increase on a like for like increase (i.e. adjusting for any transfers in of grants into the settlement, which is a 4.6% increase (above the average of 4.3%). Its total for 2025-26 is £374.0m.

If there are any further lines you would like to add from a local government perspective please do let us know.

Many thanks
