Dear [Name],

Welsh Language Use Survey

An interviewer recently visited your home to carry out an interview for the National Survey for Wales. They left a questionnaire about the Welsh language for you to complete as you were identified as a Welsh speaker.

We are very interested to know more about how people across Wales use the Welsh language, and your answers will help us make sure we have an accurate picture.

We haven't yet received your completed questionnaire. I enclose another copy of the questionnaire and would be grateful if you could complete and return this as soon as possible, in the freepost envelope provided.

If you have recently returned your questionnaire, many thanks for your time; you do not need to do anything further.

Taking part is voluntary, but I hope you will be willing to help as we cannot get this information in any other way. The study will not take up much of your time.

If you have any questions or concerns about this survey, please contact the National Survey team on 029 2082 6685 or e-mail surveys@wales.gsi.gov.uk

Thank you for your help.

Yours faithfully,

Steven Marshall
Chief Social Research Officer of the Welsh Government
