

21 December 2016

National Survey 2017-18

The main topics for the National Survey in 2017-18 are set out below. Fieldwork will run from April 2017 to March 2018.

A pilot test will be carried out early in 2017. The final set of topics may differ slightly from the list below, depending on the exact timings (the survey has a maximum length of 45 minutes).

Core topics

Demographic questions
Welsh language: ability and use
Tenure
Income
Household material deprivation
Child material deprivation

Welsh Government topics

Health and social care services

Child screen time, physical activity and diet
BMI (Body Mass Index)
Diet
Alcohol
Smoking
Physical activity
Carers
Views on GP services
Views on hospital services
Access to GP and hospital services in Welsh
Non-GP primary care services
Use of medicines
Tattoos and piercings
Awareness of drug support information

Housing

Satisfaction with accommodation
Fire safety
Noise
Disabled adaptations

Wellbeing

Aspects of wellbeing
Loneliness
Volunteering

Local area

Local authority services
Access to local services and facilities
Active Travel
Play

Education

Children's rights
Satisfaction with education system
Primary and secondary schools: parents' views
Responsibility for education

Other topics

Internet use
Welsh language: attitudes and confidence
Awareness of responsibility for taxes
Food poverty
Arts attendance and participation
Visits to:
- historic places
- museums
- libraries and archives
Problems and advice services
Changes in benefits system

Sport Wales topics

Current participation and latent demand