

National Survey topics 2018-19

The main topics for the National Survey in 2018-19 are set out below.

Fieldwork will run from April 2018 to March 2019. A pilot test will be carried out early in 2018, and the final set of topics may change slightly from the list below due to timings (as the survey has a maximum length of 45 minutes).

Core topics

Demographic questions
Welsh language: ability and use
Economic status and qualifications
Tenure
Well-being
Health status
Household / child material deprivation

Welsh Government topics

Health and health / social care services

BMI (Body Mass Index)
Diet
Alcohol
Smoking and e-cigarettes
Physical activity
Child screen time
Mental well-being
Hearing impairment
Eye care
Use of / satisfaction with GP and hospital services
Use of / satisfaction with out of hours GP services
Overall satisfaction with health services
Views on social care services

Local area and environment

Community cohesion
Community safety
Local authority services
Access to local services and facilities
Democracy and understanding of local councils
Play facilities
Active travel
Recycling
Carrier bag use

Education and childcare

Childcare
Primary and secondary schools: parents' views
Post-compulsory education and training
Overall satisfaction with education system

Other topics

Internet connection and use
Welsh language in the workplace
Welsh language transmission
Income band
Food poverty
Welfare reform
Awareness of responsibility for taxes
Overall satisfaction with Welsh Government

Welsh Government Sponsored Bodies topics

Arts Council of Wales

Arts and cultural activities
Attitudes to arts and culture

Natural Resources Wales

Visits to the outdoors
Local environmental quality
Biodiversity
Climate change and environmental action
Flood risk

Sport Wales

Current participation and latent demand